

SYMPOSIUM ON COMMON GRACE IN BUSINESS

COMMON GRACE IN BUSINESS

What it Means & Why it Matters

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 2014 Registration: $149

Prince Conference Center | Calvin College | Grand Rapids, MI

Members of the faith, business, and academic communities are invited to the Symposium on Common Grace, a one-day event exploring Abraham Kuyper's works on common grace and how it applies to various business disciplines. The event will also celebrate the publication of the Acton Institute's first translation of Kuyper's works on common grace into English.

Breakfast Keynote speaker:

Dr. Peter Heslam

director of Transforming Business at Cambridge University

www.transformingbusiness.net

Dinner Keynote Speaker:

Dr. Richard Mouw

former president of Fuller
Theological Seminary

www.fuller.edu

Other high profile business and thought leaders slated to present:

- Bing Goei, owner of Eastern Floral
- Sid Jansma Jr., owner of Wolverine Gas & Oil
- Milt Kuyers, owner of GMK Companies
- Amy Ruis, owner of Art of the Table
- Michelle Van Dyke, regional president of Fifth Third Bank
- Dr. Kelli Schutte, Willam Jewell College
- Dr. Scott Quatro, Covenant College
- Dr. Bruce Baker, Seattle Pacific University
- Dr. John Bolt, Calvin Theological Seminary
- J.D. Loeks, President, Celebration! Cinemas
- Dr. Scott Rae, Biola University
- Dr. Vahagn Asatryan, Redeemer University College

Paper sessions by Calvin College Business Department faculty will also be presented during the all-day event.

LEARN MORE AND REGISTER

www.calvin.edu/innovation/events/commongracesymposium.html

Symposium on Common Grace is presented by:

CALVIN CENTER FOR INNOVATION IN BUSINESS

A CENTER OF CALVIN COLLEGE

ACTON INSTITUTE

with additional funding by JC & Tammy Huizenga